

February Furniture Sale

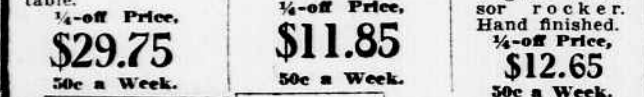

This 3-piece Fumed Oak Suite For Den or Living Room

Can you think of a better investment costing less than a ten-dollar bill? There are three pieces, as sketched—Large Table, with drawer and magazine racks; Armchair and Rocker, with imitation leather seats. 1/4-off price..... $9.85
25c A WEEK PAYS FOR IT.

This Mahogany Parlor Table

Of genuine mahogany, oval design, with artistic legs and convenient lower shelf. 1/4-off Price..... $11.85
50c a Week.

This Quilted Windsor Rocker

Of solid mahogany; an exact reproduction of an old English Windsor rocker. Hand finished. 1/4-off Price..... $12.65
50c a Week.

Brass Crib

A continuous post design, with heavy filigree set close together to prevent baby from falling out. Extra high, adjustable sides. 1/4-off Price..... $19.85
50c a Week.

This Combination China Closet and Crystal Cabinet

Of quartered oak. $43.75
50c a Week.

Medicine Cabinet

For bathroom or bedroom; can be fastened anywhere. White enamel, with mirror door. 1/4-off Price..... $6.85
No C. O. D. or phone orders.

This Gas Stove

A splendid little cook top, with heavy enamel, with good size oven. 1/4-off Price..... $7.65
25c a Week.

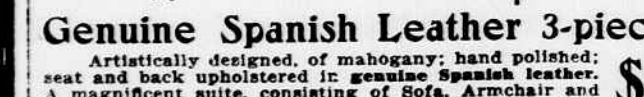

This Bamboo Table

No C. O. D. or phone orders. 39c

This Go-Cart

Folds up when not in use. Has a rubber-tired wheels. Finished in black; adjustable foot rest. No C. O. D. or phone or mail orders. $1.19

This Handsome Oak Extension Table

As well built table of selected golden oak. Extends to 8 feet. 1/4-off Price..... $7.85

Genuine Spanish Leather 3-piece Suite

Artistically designed, of mahogany; hand polished; seat and back upholstered in genuine Spanish leather. A magnificent suite, consisting of Sofa, Armchair and Rocker. 1/4-off price..... $45.00

This Charming Bedroom Outfit

Consists of a two-inch Continuous Post Brass Bed, a Well Front Dresser, Chiffonier and Toilet Table of mahogany, or oak as you prefer, and a Side Chair to match. Five pieces. 1/4-off price..... $56.50

Golden Oak 3-piece Dining Suite

A handsomely designed, well constructed suite of three pieces—Buffet, Serving Table and China Cabinet. Quartered oak; dove-tailed construction. 1/4-off price..... $63.50

1/4 OFF REGULAR PRICES

This 5-piece Bedroom Outfit

Think of it! Complete furnishings for a bedroom, including a Handsome Brass Bed, all for $39.75. The outfit consists of a Colonial Continuous Post Brass Bed, a Golden Oak or Mahogany Dresser, Toilet Table and Chiffonier and a Cane Seat Side Chair. 1/4-off price..... $39.75

Hecht & Co.

Seventh Street Near F

Note These Savings on Rugs

$9.85 For 9x12 Brussels Rugs. Former price, $13.75.

$3.65 For 9x12-Foot Wool and Fiber Rugs. Former price, $6.00.

$4.98 For 9x12-Foot Grass Rugs. Former price, $7.50.

$69c For Grass Rugs Size 36x72 Inches. Former price, $1.25.

87c For Regular $1.25 Velvet Carpet.

$2.79 For $3.75 Velvet Rugs 36x72 Inches.

26c 69c New Process Linoleum. In tile, parquet and conventional designs. Every yard perfect. Square yard.....

$3.69 20-Yard Rolls of China Matting. Regular price, $5.00 a roll. New, fresh goods. Best Cochon China Matting ever sold at the price.

Famous Makes of Pianos

in This Sale of Used Instruments

$1.00 a Week. No First Payment.

Steinway, Rosewood Case -- $65

Kranich & Bach Upright ---- $89

Bradbury Upright--a Bargain at $78

FREE Stool, Scarf and Free Delivery

No Interest or Extra.

Slightly Used 88-Note Player-Piano, Mahogany Case

$348

Entire Factory Close-Out!

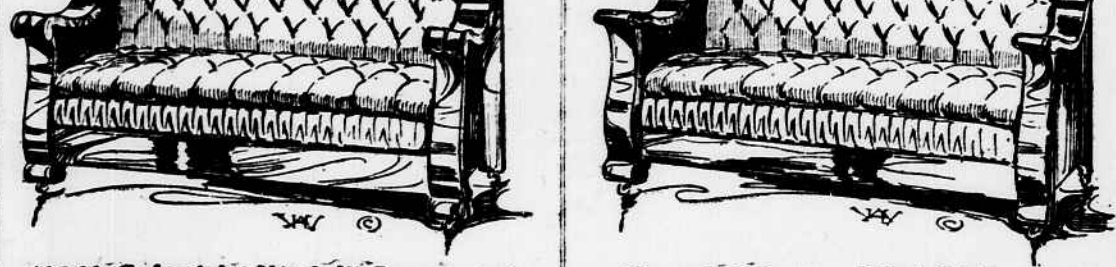

5 Carloads Kindel Bed Davenport

To Be Closed Out At Less Than They Cost to Make and Market

We shall offer them in the DISCOUNT SALE AT LESS THAN ONE-FOURTH OFF REGULAR PRICES just so long as the stock lasts. This is an opportunity with a capital O. It may not come your way again. You have but to price them elsewhere in order to realize that this sale is the most remarkable furniture event ever launched in Washington.

If you have never had a Parlor Bed in your home you have no idea what a serviceable piece of furniture your home lacks. In the Kindel Parlor Bed is found three distinct articles at the price and in the space of one. It saves rent, by saving space, and it costs no more than the ordinary bed of equal grade. As a day chair, it has no equal, and as a bed it is found to be lacking in nothing. It also has a wardrobe under the seat, greatly desired by every housewife.

No First Deposit--Terms as Low as 50c a Week

$85.00 'Kindel' Davenport

Of golden quartered oak or mahogany. Very massive in design. Hand polished. Note the curved legs and graceful arms. Covered with best grade of imitation leather. $46.75

$1.00 A WEEK

"Tuxedo" Design Kindel Davenport

Luxurious Over-stuffed Upholstered Kindel Davenport, imitation leather; mahogany or quartered oak. Wonderfully comfortable. Special slanting arms that just fit crook of the elbow. Regular retail price is $80. $43.75

$1.00 A WEEK

"Colonial" Design Davenport

Beautiful Colonial Mahogany or Golden Quartered Oak Kindel Davenport. An exact reproduction of the best examples of its period. Note the massive, luxurious appearance. Covered with imitation leather. $39.75

75c A WEEK

"Colonial" Design Davenport

Golden Quartered Oak or Mahogany Kindel Davenport. Of colonial design. Note the broad arm rests and massive claw feet. Upholstered in imitation leather. The whole appearance is one of wonderful dignity and expressiveness. $29.75

50c A WEEK

WILL ASK MORE AID BY U. S. FOR SERBS

Mrs. Pankhurst and Cheddo Miyatovich to Speak Next Sunday.

TO SHOW HOW NATION IS RAVAGED BY WAR

Former Minister of Finance to Make Principal Address at Belasco Theater Meeting.

MRS. EMMELINE PANKHURST.

In behalf of the suffering in Serbia, recently swept by the greatest plague in modern history, adding the ravages of cholera and typhus to the other horrors of war, an appeal to the sympathies and assistance of the American people is being made by a commission sent from that government, consisting of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the noted English militant suffragist, and Cheddo Miyatovich, former Serbian secretary of state for foreign affairs and minister to the court of St. James.

These two distinguished emissaries will speak in Washington at the Belasco Theater next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, to which the public is invited. They have the patronage of many prominent persons in Washington.

Mr. Cheddo Miyatovich has had a distinguished career as diplomat, minister and man of letters. He was quite a young man when he represented Serbia at the international conference on the Black sea and Danube in London. After the war between Serbia and Bulgaria in 1915, he was Serbian minister in London, was called to negotiate peace between his country and Bulgaria, and he signed then that unique document in diplomatic history, consisting only of one single article, declaring "that the peace between Serbia and Bulgaria is established."

Was Minister of Finance.

He served his country as minister of finance and commerce and also as minister of foreign affairs and Serbian minister in London. He has been minister to Rumania, Holland and Turkey, as well as to England, and in 1899 he represented Serbia at the first International Peace Conference at The Hague. In 1901 he was made member of the upper house, or senate, of Serbia.

In an interview regarding his mission he tells why the Serbian people are deserving of the sympathy of the people of the United States, and pays tribute to his country as a leader in democracy, culture, in Christianity, liberty and independence, as follows: "Our task is to appeal to the American people not to relax in their generous sympathies with the Serbian people, and to prove to them that the Serbs are worthy of such sympathies. We will not lose for a moment the consciousness that we are in a neutral country. All we wish to do is to explain why the Serbs are worthy of the sympathies of the American people. We are the most democratic people in Europe, with strong and deep sentiment of fraternity toward all other serve their country was one of the objects of this paper, as was also the bringing of Great Britain into closer touch with the points of view of the allied nations.

Enlisted the Aid of Women.

In the early summer the question of munitions became a vital one, and the W. S. P. U. realized that public interest must be aroused to make it understood that women's help was needed in this connection. They then opened a war service register for women eager to do munitions and other forms of war service. The numbers soon rose to many thousands, and women of all grades flocked to Lincoln's Inn house to register their names for some sort of war work. In addition to this the W. S. P. U. organized a monster procession of women eager for some sort of war work, which marched through London Saturday, July 17.

A deputation marched in front, headed

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

WILL ASK MORE AID BY U. S. FOR SERBS

Mrs. Pankhurst and Cheddo Miyatovich to Speak Next Sunday.

TO SHOW HOW NATION IS RAVAGED BY WAR

Former Minister of Finance to Make Principal Address at Belasco Theater Meeting.

MRS. EMMELINE PANKHURST.

In behalf of the suffering in Serbia, recently swept by the greatest plague in modern history, adding the ravages of cholera and typhus to the other horrors of war, an appeal to the sympathies and assistance of the American people is being made by a commission sent from that government, consisting of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the noted English militant suffragist, and Cheddo Miyatovich, former Serbian secretary of state for foreign affairs and minister to the court of St. James.

These two distinguished emissaries will speak in Washington at the Belasco Theater next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, to which the public is invited. They have the patronage of many prominent persons in Washington.

Mr. Cheddo Miyatovich has had a distinguished career as diplomat, minister and man of letters. He was quite a young man when he represented Serbia at the international conference on the Black sea and Danube in London. After the war between Serbia and Bulgaria in 1915, he was Serbian minister in London, was called to negotiate peace between his country and Bulgaria, and he signed then that unique document in diplomatic history, consisting only of one single article, declaring "that the peace between Serbia and Bulgaria is established."

Was Minister of Finance.

He served his country as minister of finance and commerce and also as minister of foreign affairs and Serbian minister in London. He has been minister to Rumania, Holland and Turkey, as well as to England, and in 1899 he represented Serbia at the first International Peace Conference at The Hague. In 1901 he was made member of the upper house, or senate, of Serbia.

In an interview regarding his mission he tells why the Serbian people are deserving of the sympathy of the people of the United States, and pays tribute to his country as a leader in democracy, culture, in Christianity, liberty and independence, as follows: "Our task is to appeal to the American people not to relax in their generous sympathies with the Serbian people, and to prove to them that the Serbs are worthy of such sympathies. We will not lose for a moment the consciousness that we are in a neutral country. All we wish to do is to explain why the Serbs are worthy of the sympathies of the American people. We are the most democratic people in Europe, with strong and deep sentiment of fraternity toward all other serve their country was one of the objects of this paper, as was also the bringing of Great Britain into closer touch with the points of view of the allied nations.

Enlisted the Aid of Women.

In the early summer the question of munitions became a vital one, and the W. S. P. U. realized that public interest must be aroused to make it understood that women's help was needed in this connection. They then opened a war service register for women eager to do munitions and other forms of war service. The numbers soon rose to many thousands, and women of all grades flocked to Lincoln's Inn house to register their names for some sort of war work. In addition to this the W. S. P. U. organized a monster procession of women eager for some sort of war work, which marched through London Saturday, July 17.

A deputation marched in front, headed

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

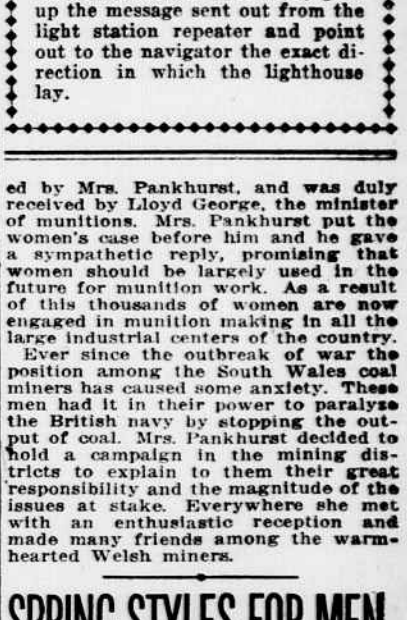

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

WILL ASK MORE AID BY U. S. FOR SERBS

Mrs. Pankhurst and Cheddo Miyatovich to Speak Next Sunday.

TO SHOW HOW NATION IS RAVAGED BY WAR

Former Minister of Finance to Make Principal Address at Belasco Theater Meeting.

MRS. EMMELINE PANKHURST.

In behalf of the suffering in Serbia, recently swept by the greatest plague in modern history, adding the ravages of cholera and typhus to the other horrors of war, an appeal to the sympathies and assistance of the American people is being made by a commission sent from that government, consisting of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the noted English militant suffragist, and Cheddo Miyatovich, former Serbian secretary of state for foreign affairs and minister to the court of St. James.

These two distinguished emissaries will speak in Washington at the Belasco Theater next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, to which the public is invited. They have the patronage of many prominent persons in Washington.

Mr. Cheddo Miyatovich has had a distinguished career as diplomat, minister and man of letters. He was quite a young man when he represented Serbia at the international conference on the Black sea and Danube in London. After the war between Serbia and Bulgaria in 1915, he was Serbian minister in London, was called to negotiate peace between his country and Bulgaria, and he signed then that unique document in diplomatic history, consisting only of one single article, declaring "that the peace between Serbia and Bulgaria is established."

Was Minister of Finance.

He served his country as minister of finance and commerce and also as minister of foreign affairs and Serbian minister in London. He has been minister to Rumania, Holland and Turkey, as well as to England, and in 1899 he represented Serbia at the first International Peace Conference at The Hague. In 1901 he was made member of the upper house, or senate, of Serbia.

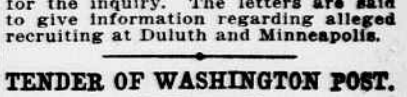

In an interview regarding his mission he tells why the Serbian people are deserving of the sympathy of the people of the United States, and pays tribute to his country as a leader in democracy, culture, in Christianity, liberty and independence, as follows: "Our task is to appeal to the American people not to relax in their generous sympathies with the Serbian people, and to prove to them that the Serbs are worthy of such sympathies. We will not lose for a moment the consciousness that we are in a neutral country. All we wish to do is to explain why the Serbs are worthy of the sympathies of the American people. We are the most democratic people in Europe, with strong and deep sentiment of fraternity toward all other serve their country was one of the objects of this paper, as was also the bringing of Great Britain into closer touch with the points of view of the allied nations.

Enlisted the Aid of Women.

In the early summer the question of munitions became a vital one, and the W. S. P. U. realized that public interest must be aroused to make it understood that women's help was needed in this connection. They then opened a war service register for women eager to do munitions and other forms of war service. The numbers soon rose to many thousands, and women of all grades flocked to Lincoln's Inn house to register their names for some sort of war work. In addition to this the W. S. P. U. organized a monster procession of women eager for some sort of war work, which marched through London Saturday, July 17.

A deputation marched in front, headed

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

WILL ASK MORE AID BY U. S. FOR SERBS

Mrs. Pankhurst and Cheddo Miyatovich to Speak Next Sunday.

TO SHOW HOW NATION IS RAVAGED BY WAR

Former Minister of Finance to Make Principal Address at Belasco Theater Meeting.

MRS. EMMELINE PANKHURST.

In behalf of the suffering in Serbia, recently swept by the greatest plague in modern history, adding the ravages of cholera and typhus to the other horrors of war, an appeal to the sympathies and assistance of the American people is being made by a commission sent from that government, consisting of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the noted English militant suffragist, and Cheddo Miyatovich, former Serbian secretary of state for foreign affairs and minister to the court of St. James.

These two distinguished emissaries will speak in Washington at the Belasco Theater next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, to which the public is invited. They have the patronage of many prominent persons in Washington.

Mr. Cheddo Miyatovich has had a distinguished career as diplomat, minister and man of letters. He was quite a young man when he represented Serbia at the international conference on the Black sea and Danube in London. After the war between Serbia and Bulgaria in 1915, he was Serbian minister in London, was called to negotiate peace between his country and Bulgaria, and he signed then that unique document in diplomatic history, consisting only of one single article, declaring "that the peace between Serbia and Bulgaria is established."

Was Minister of Finance.

He served his country as minister of finance and commerce and also as minister of foreign affairs and Serbian minister in London. He has been minister to Rumania, Holland and Turkey, as well as to England, and in 1899 he represented Serbia at the first International Peace Conference at The Hague. In 1901 he was made member of the upper house, or senate, of Serbia.

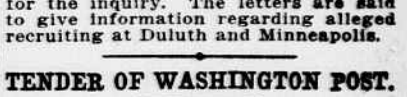

In an interview regarding his mission he tells why the Serbian people are deserving of the sympathy of the people of the United States, and pays tribute to his country as a leader in democracy, culture, in Christianity, liberty and independence, as follows: "Our task is to appeal to the American people not to relax in their generous sympathies with the Serbian people, and to prove to them that the Serbs are worthy of such sympathies. We will not lose for a moment the consciousness that we are in a neutral country. All we wish to do is to explain why the Serbs are worthy of the sympathies of the American people. We are the most democratic people in Europe, with strong and deep sentiment of fraternity toward all other serve their country was one of the objects of this paper, as was also the bringing of Great Britain into closer touch with the points of view of the allied nations.

Enlisted the Aid of Women.

In the early summer the question of munitions became a vital one, and the W. S. P. U. realized that public interest must be aroused to make it understood that women's help was needed in this connection. They then opened a war service register for women eager to do munitions and other forms of war service. The numbers soon rose to many thousands, and women of all grades flocked to Lincoln's Inn house to register their names for some sort of war work. In addition to this the W. S. P. U. organized a monster procession of women eager for some sort of war work, which marched through London Saturday, July 17.

A deputation marched in front, headed

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHEDDO MIYATOVICH.

CHED